

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: Monday November 1, 2010

Contact: Maria Smith, Marketing Officer

Phone: (304) 296-3680

GREY LINE THANKSGIVING BREAK – ADDED TRIPS TO PITTSBURGH

Morgantown, WV- Mountain Line Transit Authority will be running additional service to the Pittsburgh Airport for Thanksgiving Break. On Friday November 19th the regularly scheduled Grey Line will depart Morgantown at 8:00 AM and 5:30 PM as usual. In addition the Grey Line Express to Pittsburgh Airport service will depart Morgantown at 8:00 AM, 12:00 noon and 4:00 PM. All trips will arrive at the Airport approximately 2 hours after departure from Westover Terminal.

On Sunday November 28th the Grey Line Express will depart the Airport at 10:00 AM, 2:00 PM and 6:00 PM in addition to the regularly scheduled departures at 10:00 AM and 9:10 PM.

Reservations are highly recommended during the holiday, cash paying riders are not guaranteed a seat on the bus. A one way ticket from Morgantown to the Airport is $25. Reservations can be made online at www.busride.org or by calling 304-296-3869.

For information on all Mountain Line bus routes and schedules, riders can call 304-291-RIDE (7433) during normal hours of operation or visit www.busride.org. You can also follow Mountain Line on Facebook and Twitter.

Thank you.